

Attorney Tripp Joins Special Needs Academy

Attorney Amy R. Tripp has become a member the “Academy of Special Needs Planners.” The Academy is designed to support attorneys who, like Ms. Tripp, dedicate a significant portion of their practices to helping individuals with disabilities and their families.

“Special needs planning has become a large part of my practice” said Ms. Tripp. “I really enjoy working with families of persons with special needs. I find this area of practice extremely rewarding.”