

Elderlaw & Estate Planning Update

Attorney Bos Receives Award

Attorney John E. Bos (center) poses with Shel Stark and Jeff Kirkey from the Michigan Institute of Continuing Legal Education in Traverse City, where Mr. Bos was named the first recipient of the George A Cooney Award. The honor was given to Mr. Bos for his substantial contributions to the continuing education of Michigan Attorneys in the areas of Elder Law, Estate Planning, and Probate Practice. This award was founded jointly by the Probate and Estate Planning Council of the State Bar of Michigan and the Institute of Continuing Legal Education.